

Mitchell L. Stevens is Associate Professor of Education and Sociology at New York University. An organizational sociologist and an ethnographer, he studies the cultural components of formal organizational systems. He is the author of Kingdom of Children: Culture and Controversy in the Homeschooling Movement (Princeton, 2001), which was a finalist for the C. Wright Mills Award, and of Creating Classes: College Admissions and Elite Schooling in America (Harvard, forthcoming).